Dear Mr. Attorney General:

A letter of September 26, 1950, from Assistant Attorney General McInerney suggests designating a Central Intelligence Agency representative to confer with Mr. William E. Foley on the registration section of the Foreign Agents Registration Act as amended.

Initially I am designating our General Counsel, Mr. Lawrence R. Houston, for such conference to establish appropriate liaison for the administration of Section 20 with its new provisions.

I wish to thank you for a copy of your report to Congress on the administration of the Act during the years 1945 through 1949 which was sent to us by Mr. Foley.

Sincerely yours,

sgd. dis mis ER 9 Oct 50
